Untouched, 11.6-hectare canvas on the edge of The Crag, primed for your off-grid vision

SOLE MANDATE

This 11.6-hectare parcel of land is pristine, private, and entirely natural—offering a rare opportunity to build something truly your own. Zoned agricultural and left untouched, the property stretches out along a gentle kloof, with sloping terrain that flattens toward the Keurbooms Road, giving gorgeous texture to its lush landscape.

Whether you dream of a self-sustaining homestead, a quiet cabin retreat, or simply a place to disappear into the wild, this land delivers space, stillness, and endless possibility. For those wanting to blend lifestyle with livelihood, its position and roadside access make it a prime spot for a thriving padstal—offering a rare chance to live off the land and share its beauty with passersby.

Located just ten minutes from Plett and right next door to the beloved Moss & Maple café,...
